

AVIATION LAW

The firm represents both entities and individuals in the areas of aircraft sales and acquisitions, aircraft finance and aircraft leasing. Additionally, the firm regularly advises clients with respect to Federal Aviation Administration regulatory matters, including issues relating to the proper structuring of aircraft ownership, and advises clients with respect to registration issues under the Cape Town Treaty affecting aircraft interests.