

REAL ESTATE

The Moore & Van Allen Real Estate group provides extensive experience, effective strategies, and a practical approach to help real estate developers, institutional investors, insurance companies, corporations and financial institutions complete commercial real estate transactions locally, statewide and nationwide in a timely and cost-efficient manner.

The varied backgrounds of our team members—representing the skills, knowledge and experience of more than 30 group attorneys—include experience in acquiring, financing, developing, selling and leasing commercial real estate of most all types, from office buildings to industrial sites, from shopping centers to mixed-use developments and from residential subdivisions to hotels.

You will work directly with a responsive, client-focused senior attorney leading a team of MVA colleagues with varied skills and hourly rates matched to your needs and the nature of your transaction. Our goal is always to meet your objectives and your deadlines at highly competitive rates.

When client needs demand, we draw on the expertise of MVA colleagues in the Taxation, Environmental, Financial Services and Litigation practice groups to provide comprehensive commercial real estate counsel.

Areas of Focus:

- Real estate acquisition and disposition
- Retail, office and industrial leasing
- Development, construction and permanent financing

