

FINANCIAL SERVICES

We have become one of the country's foremost Financial Services groups by providing leading national lenders and investors sophisticated, market-savvy counsel coupled with attentive, personal service at highly competitive rates.

Our Financial Services team of over 60 attorneys represents lenders of all types in financings for a broad range of transaction structures. We also regularly represent our financial sponsor and corporate clients as borrowers in a wide variety of financing matters.

Deeply experienced in syndicated lending, mezzanine finance, real-estate lending, project and equipment finance, asset-based lending and structured finance, our attorneys create value for our clients through market knowledge, carefully nuanced counsel and a strong work ethic.

Further, thanks to a team approach that matches professionals of diverse skills and varying hourly rates to clients needs, we provide a premier work product while controlling client costs.

Practice Focus

Financings for:

- Syndicated credit facilities
- Real estate lending
- Mezzanine debt and private equity investments
- Project and equipment finance
- Structured finance

FINANCIAL SERVICES

