With over twenty years experience and knowledge in business immigration matters, Steve Hader provides his diverse, global clients quick, responsive and practical solutions to their U.S. visa and immigration concerns.

He works to simplify and speed the complex immigration and visa processes to help bring crucially needed international professionals—from biomedical researchers to noted athletes, from engineers to recording artists—into the U.S. for his pharmaceutical, biotech, banking, entertainment, manufacturing, information technology, and engineering clients.

Mr. Hader strives to achieve his clients' business goals while helping individuals with important events in their lives, leading a team of efficient and cost-effective MVA professionals focused on customer service and skilled at surmounting government hurdles and restrictions.

The services he provides his clients include:

- Preparation of all employment-related visa petitions.
- Preparation of applications for permanent residence.
- Support and guidance on compliance issues.
- Compliance with employer sanctions.
- Counsel on potential legal consequences and immigration laws that impact changing corporate structure (mergers & acquisitions).
- Development of corporate immigration policy guidelines.
