Jason Huff has wide-ranging experience in financial transactions. His practice is concentrated primarily on representing lenders and lessors in all aspects of equipment finance with an emphasis on business aircraft and rail equipment.

Mr. Huff has substantial experience structuring, documenting and negotiating all types of equipment financing transactions, including:

- Lease agreements (true/tax motivated, finance and synthetic)
- Secured financings
- Progress payment financings/green aircraft financings
- Syndications
- Lease and loan portfolio acquisitions and sales
- Cross-border transactions
- Cape Town Compliance

Mr. Huff's areas of practice include Uniform Commercial Code issues, Federal Aviation Administration registrations, Cape Town Treaty requirements, and International Registry registrations.

In addition to aircraft and rail equipment, Mr. Huff regularly represents clients regarding the financing of manufacturing, construction equipment, medical equipment, trucks, trailers, containers and other types of equipment. He also advises clients in syndication transactions, including portfolio purchases, single transaction sale and assignments and participation transactions.
