

PRACTICE AREAS

- Derivatives
- Financial Services
- Structured Finance

EDUCATION

- B.S., Vanderbilt University, 1998, cum laude
- Universite de la Sorbonne, Paris, 2001, Cornell Institute for Comparative Law
- J.D., University of Richmond, 2003, cum laude; Manuscripts Editor, University of Richmond Law Review, 2002-03; Order of the Barristers

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

- North Carolina, 2003

NOELLE HICKS SPROUL

MEMBER

100 North Tryon Street
Suite 4700
Charlotte, NC 28202-4003

CHARLOTTE

TEL: (704) 331-1116
FAX: (704) 378-1916

noellesproul@mvalaw.com

Noelle Sproul offers substantial experience in a variety of structured finance transactions including repurchase facilities, securitizations and derivatives, and she routinely represents issuers, placement agents, buyers and hedge counterparties. Her experience includes advising institutional clients in connection with troubled transactions.

- Ms. Sproul regularly represents financial institutions in connection with repurchase facilities.
- Ms. Sproul's securitization work includes transactions related to equipment leases, chassis, containers, rolling stock and commercial aircraft.
- Ms. Sproul's derivative experience includes interest rate swaps and commodity hedges.
- Ms. Sproul's leasing work includes leveraged leasing transactions for aircraft, rolling stock and chassis.

OF NOTE

- Participated in the 2002 Judge John R. Brown Admiralty Moot Court Competition, where she was awarded the Maritime Law Association Award for Best Brief
- Wrote an article based on that brief, which was published in the University of San Francisco Journal of Maritime Law
- Wrote article "Facilitating International Trade: The U.S. Need Federal Legislation Governing the Enforcement of Foreign Judgments," published at 28 Brooklyn Journal of International Law 156 (2002), which won the 2002 Andrew P. Vance

CONTINUED

NOELLE HICKS SPROUL

Memorial Writing Competition and the 2002 Virginia State Bar International Section Writing Competition

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Bar Association
- North Carolina Bar Association