Mr. Bloomfield has broad experience in government investigations, complex commercial litigation and alternative dispute resolution matters, including merger investigations, securities trading, contract disputes and insurance defense proceedings in both the federal and state court systems.

In addition to his investigation matters, Mr. Bloomfield has worked on the following representative cases:

- Won a motion to dismiss for a real estate investment firm in a real estate dispute
- Successfully defended insurance company against a claim by its insured under a political risk policy for the alleged taking of a power plant by the Inner-Mongolian government.
- Successfully represented financial institution in the collection of more than $15 million in defaulted loans in two bankruptcies of related entities.
- Successfully defended financial institution and its Board of Directors in an action brought by shareholders seeking to enjoin the merger of the company with another financial institution based on numerous alleged breaches of the Directors' fiduciary duties.
- Successfully represented foreign financial institution's claim in arbitration against a hedge fund.
