Dan Clodfelter's practice currently emphasizes counseling and litigation involving federal and state antitrust and unfair trade practices matters, including mergers and acquisitions, and litigation and advice relating to zoning, land use, and planning law.

Over his career, he has represented a wide range of business clients in litigation matters involving antitrust claims, RICO claims, lender liability claims, product liability actions, trademark and copyright infringement claims, and environmental liabilities and has significant experience in class action and multi-district litigation matters in the federal courts. He also has worked extensively in matters involving bankruptcy and corporate reorganizations.

He is admitted to practice in all state and federal district courts in North Carolina, in the United States Supreme Court, and in the U.S. Courts of Appeal for the Fourth and Sixth Circuits, and has frequently appeared pro hac vice in federal and state courts across the United States.

Since 1999, Mr. Clodfelter has served as a member of the North Carolina Senate, representing a portion of Mecklenburg County. He currently serves as co-chairman of the Finance Committee and chairs several other legislative committees and commissions. From 1987 to 1993, he served as a member of the Charlotte City Council, and before that he was a member and chairman of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Planning Commission. Since 1982, Mr. Clodfelter has served as a Trustee of the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, Inc., and on numerous community and statewide non-profit boards and advisory bodies. His past service includes the Chief Justice's Commission on the Future of the Courts in North Carolina, the Board of Directors of the
