

November 12, 2008

HIGH RANKINGS FOR MOORE & VAN ALLEN'S LITIGATION PRACTICE IN BENCHMARK LITIGATION 2009

Moore & Van Allen is pleased to announce that the Firm's litigation practice has received high marks in the Benchmark Litigation 2009 listing of North Carolina firms.

According to the publication, the Firm's prime areas of litigation include: commercial, construction, environmental, intellectual property, insurance and products liability law.

Firm member, James P. McLoughlin, Jr. who focuses his practice on high-profile civil and criminal litigations was recognized as a "local litigation star" and Firm members, Brian S. Heslin and Jeffrey M. Young were recognized as "future litigation stars."

Benchmark Litigation is published by the Legal Media Group, which is part of Euromoney Institutional Investor, PLC. The publication does not categorize litigation attorneys by strict practice areas, instead pinpointing the best all-around "bet-the-company" trial attorneys at both the local and national levels. To view the full listings, visit: <http://www.benchmarklitigation.com/>