Tim Gilbert has significant experience in commercial real estate acquisition, development and finance transactions:

- His practice focuses primarily on the representation of national institutional lenders in the origination and servicing of loans for the commercial mortgage-backed securities (CMBS) market involving office, retail, hospitality, mixed-use, multi-family and health care properties.
- He also represents lenders in both mezzanine loan and asset-backed financing transactions and has served as lead counsel in complex multi-state commercial real estate transactions. He has extensive experience in purchase and sale transactions, structured finance and construction lending.

OF NOTE

A native of Charlotte, Mr. Gilbert joined Moore & Van Allen in 2003 and is active in local civic organizations and his church. He enjoys coaching youth sports teams.
