

COMMERCIAL TRANSACTIONS

Our nationally recognized corporate attorneys provide sophisticated, innovative counsel on complex transactions for clients across the country and around the world.

With decades of experience and a deep understanding of our clients' business goals and needs, we provide a full spectrum of corporate legal services to a wide variety of enterprises. We counsel our clients through every stage of their business development, focusing on the unique needs of each client to achieve their operational goals with efficiency, clarity, and risk mitigation.

We represent Fortune 500 companies, private equity portfolio companies, family owned businesses, sole proprietorships, joint ventures, and start-ups, with international and national footprints and operations across industry sectors, including manufacturing, software development and distribution, food services, grocery, textiles, energy, retail, construction and transportation and logistics.

Our commercial capabilities are as diverse as our clients, with core competencies that include drafting and negotiating purchase and supply agreements (both on the procurement and sell side of the transaction), contractor agreements, distribution agreements, private label agreements, licensing agreements, engineering agreements, consulting services agreements and transportation and logistics agreements. From concept to execution, we support our clients' operational needs, ranging from $10,000 supply agreements to $4 billion warehousing and logistics agreements.
