

CAMERON L. HENLEY

Director of Public Affairs

t 919.286.8050

cameronhenley@mvalaw.com

Cameron Henley's background lies in public policy, grassroots strategy, and state and local lobbying. He concentrates on representing clients before the North Carolina General Assembly and North Carolina state agencies.

Cameron works with various sectors, including energy, education, technology, and finance. He also assists clients with local matters in Wake County, the City of Raleigh, and other municipalities.

Prior to joining the firm, Cameron served as a legislative relations specialist for ElectriCities of North Carolina where he lobbied members of the General Assembly on various issues and managed grassroots advocacy efforts. Cameron also formerly served as a research assistant for North Carolina Forum for Research and Economic Education (NC FREE), where he conducted political and legislative research, analyzed political action committees, and assisted with regional briefings.

Notable

- Chairman, United Way Young Leaders Society of the Greater Triangle, 2012

Affiliations

- Board Member, North Carolina Professional Lobbyists Association,
- Board Member, North Carolina Young Lobbyists Association
- Public Policy Committee, Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, 2015-present

Capabilities

Communications & Media
Economic Development & Incentives
Government Relations
Public Affairs

Education

B.S., North Carolina State University