

RACHEL A. GRAHAM

Tax Consultant

t 704.331.2385

rachelgraham@mvalaw.com

Rachel Graham is a Certified Public Accountant whose practice focuses on assisting clients identify, calculate, and clarify federal and state credits including research and development tax credits.

Rachel's other work has included state and local tax incentives, sales and use tax, Internal Revenue Service and state tax audit support, mergers and acquisitions, tax research and classification, and treatment of fixed assets.

Prior to joining the firm, Rachel was a tax auditor with the South Carolina Department of Revenue, with over 14 years of experience auditing multi-state corporate income and license tax, sales and use tax, individual income tax, and estate tax. She began her career in private industry.

Capabilities

Tax

Education

B.S., University of South Carolina, 1984

Notable

- Certified Public Accountant:
 - North Carolina, 2016
 - South Carolina, 1995

Affiliations

- North Carolina Association of Certified Public Accountants (NCACPA)