

TERRY L. THOMSON

Member, Financial Services

t 704.331.1169

terrythomson@mvalaw.com

Terry Thomson has over a decade of experience representing financial institutions, banks, and lenders on equipment finance and derivatives transactions.

Terry Thomson is a member of the Financial Services group. Terry's practice is concentrated on representing financial institutions with respect to hedges and other derivative products, and representing banks, as well as other lending and leasing companies, with equipment finance transactions. Terry has advised financial institutions regarding treatment of derivative products in various single-investor and syndicated credit facilities, and documenting and implementing derivative and exchange traded transactions such as financial and physical commodity transactions, FX swaps, interest rate swaps, forwards, and futures. He also has significant experience with a variety of lending and leasing transactions involving corporate aircraft, rail equipment, and other equipment.

Core areas of his practice are

- Derivatives
- Equipment Finance, including rail and aviation assets

Capabilities

Project & Equipment Finance
Swaps, Derivatives &
Structured Products

Education

M.B.A., Indiana University,
2003

J.D., Indiana University, 2003, cum laude

Articles Editor, Indiana Law
Review, 2002-03

Staff Editor, 2001-02

Order of the Barristers, Fall
2000

B.A., Northwest Christian
College, 1999

A.S., Vincennes University,
1995, summa cum laude

Admissions

North Carolina, 2007

Ohio, 2003 (inactive)