Carolyn Meade serves as speaker for Smart Business Dealmakers Podcast

Speaking Engagements
November 2020

MVA Corporate Member Carolyn Meade served as the guest speaker for the Smart Business Dealmakers Podcast titled, "Selling the Family Business" which aired November 20.

If you run a privately-held business or lead a family-owned business, identifying when to exit and when to transition is never easy. In this episode, Carolyn provides advice for potential sellers, taking a look at some post-COVID options for these businesses, and how those who ultimately decide to sell can maximize value in a deal.
