

NEWS

Tandy Mathis presenting at NCBAR webcast on Practicing International Law in the Digital Age

Speaking Engagements
03.2021

Moore & Van Allen (MVA) Senior Counsel Tandy Mathis will be presenting during the NCBAR 2021 International Practice Section Program webcast, "The World Spins Madly On: Making Sense of the Current State of International Law Practicing International Law in the Digital Age", taking place on March 25. Tandy will present on the session titled, "Practicing International Law in the Digital Age."

This session concentrates on e-discovery, privacy, and security issues unique to international law practitioners. Explore how these issues and digital solutions are continuing to evolve as they pertain to cross border protection and transfer of data. For more information on the NCBAR 2021 International Practice Section Program, please click here.