

NEWS

Sarah Byrne shares insights on Trafficking Matters Podcast

Media
03.2021

Moore & Van Allen (MVA) Senior Counsel Sarah Byrne, who leads the firm's Human Trafficking Pro Bono Project, was interviewed on the Human Trafficking Institute's Trafficking Matters: A Douglass Fellowship Podcast which aired on March 11.

In Episode 4 titled, "Supporting Trafficking Survivors through Pro-Bono Work & Collectives," Sarah describes the various ways lawyers can use their pro-bono practice to support survivors of trafficking and the benefits of community collaborations and national networks.

To listen to the "Supporting Trafficking Survivors through Pro-Bono Work & Collectives" podcast, please click here.