Bilas Addresses NCAA Ruling

Bloomberg News, Indianapolis Business Journal

Charlotte attorney and ESPN basketball analyst Jay Bilas was quoted in the Indianapolis Business Journal and Bloomberg News on August 11. Both outlets published articles surrounding the August 8 ruling that the NCAA's current structure creates a cartel that violates antitrust laws by limiting what schools can offer athletes.

"This sets a baseline for some of the other lawsuits that are coming down, specifically the antitrust lawsuit being brought by Jeffrey Kessler, which is the real threat to the NCAA going forward," Bilas stated.
