Moore & Van Allen was mentioned in The Am Law Daily on May 21, in an article about the increasing number of Am Law 200 firms that have entered the South Carolina market in recent years.

The article states, "top North Carolina firm Moore & Van Allen increased its presence in Charleston by acquiring nine-lawyer Hagood & Kerr in suburban Mount Pleasant. Moore & Van Allen entered Charleston in 1997 and earlier this year the firm moved its office in the city into the historic Kress Building."
