

NEWS

Canaan Huie Participates in Panel Discussion at UNC School of Law

Speaking Engagements

February 2020

Research Triangle Public Affairs Counsel Canaan Huie participated in a panel discussion for a course on Legislative Advocacy at UNC School of Law on February 13. The panel's purpose was to discuss the role of the press and lobbyists in the legislative process. Mr. Huie's presentation highlighted issues with respect to ethical representation of clients before legislative bodies, lobbyists' interactions with members of the media, and strategies for effective legislative grassroots campaigns.