Turnaround Management Association (TMA) will honor Bankruptcy Associate Luis Lluberás, along with five other professionals, with the 2015 "Turnaround of the Year - Small Company" award at the TMA Annual conference in Scottsdale, Arizona on October 6 for their work on the Bost Distributing Co. case. Lluberás and a team of MVA attorneys, including Bankruptcy Member Ben Hawfield, Associates Cole Richins and Glenn Huether, and Intellectual Property Counsel John Slaughter, provided legal advice to Bost Distributing Co.'s court-appointed receiver in the successful restructuring of the entity's business enterprise located principally in Sanford, North Carolina.

TMA is the leading organization dedicated to turnaround management, corporate restructuring, and distressed investing. Established in 1988, TMA has more than 9,000 members in 52 chapters worldwide, including 32 in North America. Members include turnaround practitioners, attorneys, accountants, advisors, liquidators, executive recruiters, and consultants, as well as academic, government, and judicial employees.

Since 1993, TMA has honored excellence through its annual awards program, which recognizes the most successful turnarounds and impactful transactions. This year's winners saved countless jobs and made a significant economic impact, both locally and globally. A complete list of honorees can be seen here.
