McGrath's Latest Article Published in Corporate Compliance Insights

04.2016

Charlotte Litigation Member Peter McGrath's recent article was published in Corporate Compliance Insights on April 28. The article titled, "Supreme Court Considers Whether Wetlands Jurisdictional Determinations Are Immediately Appealable," revisits the rights of parties under the Clean Water Act's wetlands regulations (readers will recall that in September 2015, we examined who can determine what property is or includes wetlands) and determining what rights a party has if they disagree with a decision maker's determination that particular property is wetlands for purposes of the Clean Water Act.
