CHARLOTTE, N.C. (February 7, 2017) – Moore & Van Allen PLLC announces that the firm has formally launched a China Business Group to better serve the needs of clients with operations in the United States and China. The group is led by Dian Wang and is based in the firm's headquarters in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Moore & Van Allen's China Business Group will advise Chinese clients on mergers and acquisitions, financing, employment, immigration, data privacy, bankruptcy and litigation, among other corporate and commercial needs designed to help those interested in establishing or expanding business in the United States and Asia.

"The establishment of a China Business Group is an exciting development for our firm," said Global Services Leader Stephen Hader. "Because of our multitude of competencies in various practice areas, we believe our China Business Group brings a distinct approach to international business and is well-positioned to assist companies conducting business in the United States and other parts of Asia."

The China Business Group will offer legal services to U.S. clients providing firsthand knowledge and experience in doing business in Asia, including China, Japan and Korea. MVA represents clients in a number of sectors serving Fortune 500 companies in reorganizing complex operations including new business startups, post-operation consolidation and divestiture.

"Serving as General Counsel for SPX Corporation's operations in Asia provided me an opportunity to build an extensive network of contacts and relationships with government agencies at the central and regional level that will be beneficial to our clients here and in China," stated Wang. "I am very excited about this next phase in my career."

Prior to joining Moore & Van Allen, Wang led a variety of transactional and operational projects including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and commercial projects for Fortune 500 companies in the United States and Asia.

She was recognized for outstanding legal support to the growth of business as Vice President and Regional General Counsel for SPX Corporation – Asia Pacific and served in senior positions at General Electrics, The Gillette Company and Kellogg Company in the United States and in Asia.

Wang is a member of the Carolinas Chinese Chamber of Commerce. She is licensed in Illinois and not North Carolina. Her current practice is focused on and limited to areas of federal and international law, which include immigration and federal tax and international mergers and acquisitions.
