Moore & Van Allen PLLC is pleased to announce that, on December 20, 2018, its client, Warren Equity Partners, a lower middle market private equity fund, announced its acquisition of StormTrap, a Romeoville, Illinois-based company that provides stormwater management solutions to the municipal, commercial, industrial, and residential markets. Warren Equity Partners acquired a majority interest in StormTrap from the Hawken family, who founded the Company in 2002. The Hawken family invested alongside Warren Equity Partners in the transaction and will remain on the board of directors going forward. Financial terms of the transaction are not being disclosed.

Moore & Van Allen Corporate members Richard M. Bange III and Michael R. Miller and Corporate associates Caroline Kraich, and Kathryn Hesman, along with a broad team of Moore & Van Allen subject matter attorneys in the Finance, Intellectual Property, Labor, Employee Benefits, Insurance, Environmental and Real Estate practice areas, led Warren Equity Partners to a successful closing.

StormTrap is a leading brand in precast concrete stormwater solutions and a go-to provider for customers seeking stormwater management solutions with a lower size footprint, high storage capacity, durability, and reduced total installed cost. StormTrap designs and engineers precast concrete systems that use patented technology to store stormwater runoff in underground chambers before releasing it at a controlled rate or harvesting it for reuse. In addition, StormTrap provides water quality systems that remove pollutants and contaminants from stormwater runoff.
