

NEWS

Smith Invited to Join Hedge Fund Panel

09.2014

Charlotte Bankruptcy Member Zach Smith was invited to participate as a panelist at a dinner event for select hedge funds at the Barclays office in mid-town Manhattan on September 16. The event, which is being hosted by Barclays Head of Muni Research Tom Weyl, will provide attendees with a high-level overview on various Puerto Rico credits and current restructuring topics pertaining to Puerto Rico. Barclays is an international financial services provider engaged in personal banking, credit cards, corporate and investment banking and wealth management with an extensive presence in Europe, the Americas, Africa and Asia. With more than 300 years of history and expertise in banking, Barclays operates in over 50 countries and employs approximately 135,000 people.