08.2012

Charlotte Intellectual Property Member Mark Wilson was quoted in a North Carolina Lawyers Weekly article published on August 31. The article, "Jury awards $4.2M verdict in stolen IP claim," details the Bridgetree Inc. v. Red F Marketing LLC case—Wilson and MVA IP attorney Kate Cole represented Bridgetree in the case, which was decided in Bridgetree's favor on August 10.

"As an IP practitioner here in North Carolina, what I'm seeing in working on and following these cases is that juries around the country are being called upon more and more to try to decide complex IP cases," Wilson said.
