Alan Chadd represents bank and non-bank lenders in complex leveraged finance transactions. Alan has extensive experience and market knowledge structuring and negotiating senior secured credit facilities and subordinated debt facilities.

Alan Chadd has extensive experience representing bank and non-bank lending clients in complex financing transactions, including senior secured cash flow facilities, asset-based lending facilities, subordinated credit facilities, first and second lien credit facilities and unitranche facilities. These transactions frequently provide funds for private equity backed acquisition financings or strategic acquisitions, dividend recapitalizations, or working capital needs and often involve intercreditor arrangements among various levels of the borrower's capital structure.

Alan has experience in project finance, equipment finance, ESOP lending, Islamic finance and Export-Import Bank supported financings, as well as multi-currency facilities and cross-border transactions.
