Lexi Narducci represents clients in a variety of litigation matters, government and corporate investigations, and financial services matters. She leverages her transaction-side experience and writing skills to secure the best results for our clients.

Lexi Narducci has experience in Moore & Van Allen's Financial Services group, specializing in equipment finance. With her background on the transaction side of financial services, she frequently represents financial institutions in federal and state court.

Lexi has primarily focused on representing defendants in complex litigation matters, including antitrust matters, shareholder and corporate governance disputes, and equipment lease terminations. Additionally, she has worked on government and corporate investigations as well as regulatory response and compliance matters. She assists in reviewing agreements that may devolve into litigation or are otherwise terminated, such as lease agreements and franchise agreements.

Lexi received her B.A. from Piedmont College in Demorest, Georgia, magna cum laude, and her J.D. from Washington & Lee School of Law in Lexington, Virginia.

While at Washington & Lee, Lexi served as the symposium editor for the Journal of Civil Rights & Social Justice.

At Piedmont College, Lexi was the captain for her lacrosse team.
