Brian Mesibov has over 20 years of experience representing public and private companies, private equity funds, independent sponsors, and family-owned businesses in their merger and acquisition transactions. Brian works with clients to structure, negotiate, document, and close complex transactions across a wide range of industries.

Brian's practice includes representing buyers and sellers in their mergers and acquisitions activity across all transaction structures, including leveraged buyouts, platform and add-on acquisitions, and cross-border transactions. He has represented clients in numerous industries, including manufacturing, food and beverage, consumer products, business services, cable manufacturing, foundation repair, finance, transportation and logistics, software, and packaging. Brian primarily represents clients in middle-market transactions valued from $25 to $500 million, and has led transactions ranging from a few million to several billion dollars. Brian also assists clients in evaluating and making Hart-Scott-Rodino filings in connection with their mergers and acquisitions transactions.
