

ROBERT CULP SLOUGH

Tax Consultant

t 704.331.3568

robertslough@mvalaw.com

Robert Slough is a Certified Public Accountant and his work includes state and local tax incentives, sales and use tax, Internal Revenue Service and state tax audit support, mergers and acquisitions, tax research, and classification, treatment of fixed assets and research and development credits.

Robert began his career with a national “Big Four” accounting firm and has over 22 years’ experience in tax consulting. Prior to joining the firm, he was a tax consultant to major corporations. His background covers a broad range of tax services including tax accounting, federal and state tax compliance, consolidated groups, international taxation, reverse sales and use tax audits, property tax, Internal Revenue Service and state audit support, software selection and implementation and spreadsheet design and auditing.

Capabilities

Tax