

RYAN Y. BLUMEL

Counsel, Financial Services

t 704.331.2386

ryanblumel@mvalaw.com

Ryan Blumel, counsel for the firm's Financial Services group, focuses his practice on advising financial institutions with respect to the treatment of derivative products in various single-lender and syndicated credit facilities.

Ryan has extensive experience representing financial institutions in market value swap transactions and commercial real estate loan transactions.

In addition to his legal practice, Ryan serves as treasurer of the Charlotte Blue Ridge chapter of Mensa, the oldest IQ society in the world, and is a board member of the Hoya Hoop Club, supporting the men's basketball program at Georgetown University.

Notable

- Board Member, The Hoya Hoop Club
- Treasurer, MENSA-Charlotte/Blue Ridge Region Chapter

Affiliations

- Board Member, The Hoya Hoop Club
- Treasurer, MENSA-Charlotte/Blue Ridge Region Chapter

Capabilities

Swaps, Derivatives & Structured Products

Education

LL.M., Georgetown University Law Center, 2012, Taxation with a Certificate in Employee Benefits

J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, 2006; Articles and Notes Editor, The American Criminal Law Review

M.A., University of Essex, 2004

B.A., Washington State University, 2001

Admissions

North Carolina, 2007