Tim Corrigan represents financial institutions in connection with the structuring and documenting of real estate secured lending transactions involving a broad spectrum of property types.

Tim works with institutional lenders, including commercial banks and Farm Credit System banks and associations, in a wide range of commercial real estate finance transactions, including CMBS conduit financing, other permanent lending transactions, construction lending and multistate syndicated loan facilities. His experience spans all types of commercial properties, including retail, office, multifamily, industrial, warehouse, healthcare, hotel, self-storage and mixed-use properties, and issues such as tenant-in-common structures, fee and leasehold transactions and fractured condominiums. In addition, Tim has experience in real property workouts, foreclosures and other general real estate matters.
