MVA Corporate Member and former Chairman Ernie Reigel was quoted in the WSOCTV story titled, "Charlotte task force recommends sales, property tax hike for expanded transit" which was released on November 19. Ernie serves as one of 25 community leaders from across the Charlotte-Mecklenburg area who represent business, government, transportation and planning, education, and nonprofits as a member of the Charlotte Moves Task Force. The Charlotte Moves Task Force was formed to advise the City of Charlotte in the creation of a new Strategic Mobility Plan that integrates and updates current vehicle, pedestrian, bicycle, transit and safety plans, and sets mobility goals for the city and immediate region.

"We are at an opportunity as a community where we can go big, or we can try to bite off little bites and chews," said Ernie Reigel, a task force member and attorney for Moore & Van Allen."
