03.2021

Moore & Van Allen (MVA) Co-head of White Collar, Regulatory Defense & Investigations Member Valecia McDowell is guest speaker for the Extraordinary Women on Boards event titled, "How Corporate Board Members Detect Signs of Trouble -- Where There's Smoke There MAY Be Fire..." On March 31, Valecia will share her actionable insights and best practices for board directors, from years of experience in conduct risk management and internal investigations. The conversation will discuss potential signs of trouble -- the signals we should be looking for, and the smart questions we should be asking in the boardroom.
