

NEWS

MVA supports Arts Campaign

Commitment
05.2021

Moore & Van Allen (MVA) supported an arts fundraising campaign of the Foundation For The Carolinas (FFTC) which has been highlighted in the recent Charlotte Business Journal article titled, "Charlotte's private arts campaign reaches 70% of $18M goal" published May 26. Atrium Health, Bank of America, Barings, Centene Corporation, Duke Energy, Novant, PwC, Trane, and Truist Corporation also participated. The $18 million FFTC is raising for local arts organizations will match $18 million in City of Charlotte funding for a total of $36 million over three years.

"Moore & Van Allen is honored to participate in this public/private partnership to support our local arts organizations," said the chair of the firm, Tom Mitchell. "We fully embrace our responsibility to contribute to the cultural growth of our city, and we are committed to helping sustain our arts organizations alongside our community partners. We are grateful for the access to the arts these organizations provide to our community."

To view the CBJ article, please click here.