Moore & Van Allen PLLC (MVA) is pleased to announce that Sandra M. Lazorcheck has re-joined the firm as a member in its Financial Services group. She represents financial institutions, banks, business development companies, and alternative debt providers in a variety of financing transactions.

"We are thrilled to welcome Sandra back to the firm," said MVA Chair Tom Mitchell. "She is a highly regarded attorney whose depth of experience serving banks and other financial institutions, including direct lenders, will be invaluable to our clients." Lazorcheck will also take on the role of Development and Staffing Partner for the Financial Services group. "We are excited to have Sandra's experience and leadership in this important role," added Mitchell.

Lazorcheck regularly advises clients in the healthcare, defense and aerospace, financial services, staffing, manufacturing, forest products, energy, and other industries on syndicated leveraged financings, acquisition financings, and investment grade financings, as well as other secured and unsecured lending transactions. She has broad experience with debt products such as working capital facilities, asset-based and cash flow revolving facilities, letter-of-credit facilities, first lien/second lien facilities, unitranche facilities, and mezzanine financings.

She earned a B.A. and B.S. from Syracuse University and her J.D., magna cum laude, from New York Law School.
