MVA Human Trafficking Pro Bono Project Leader and Financial Regulatory Advice & Response Senior Counsel Sarah Byrne and Financial Services Counsel Ed Ivey's article titled, "Human Rights-Focused Lending Models Can Curb Trafficking" was published by Law360 on August 6.

The article

This summer marks the 10th anniversary of the United Nations Human Rights Council's adoption of the Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, setting forth the internationally accepted framework for the role of businesses in promoting and protecting human rights.

These principles highlight the risks businesses face in their activities that may be linked to human rights violations.
