Moore & Van Allen (MVA) Senior Counsel Sarah Byrne served as a presenter for the National Survivor Law Collective webinar “Trauma-Informed Legal Representation of Human Trafficking Survivors” which took place on September 10. Attendees learned about what it means to be a trauma-informed lawyer and how to put those skills to practice when working with trafficking survivors. This training educated participants on the impact of trauma on the brain and provided tools and tips on how to effectively work with clients who are victims of trauma without re-traumatizing them. This training also educated participants on the impact of working with trauma victims including how to identify and respond to vicarious trauma.
