On October 23, friends, family, colleagues, and clients gathered at the Mint Museum to honor Neill McBryde, senior member of the Wealth & Estate Planning group, to celebrate Neill's retirement, learn about the giving society, and tour the John Leslie Breck: American Impressionist exhibition. The Dwelle Society was renamed the Dwelle-McBryde Society to recognize the steadfast support of Neill, a longtime champion of the Mint Museum and legacy giving, and to honor Neill in his upcoming retirement.

Neill guided clients for 31 years and received national recognition for his excellence in legal services. Outside of MVA, he has been active in a number of professional and community organizations including the Mint Museum, Myers Park Presbyterian Church, and more.
