Moore & Van Allen was presented with the “City Builders Award” from Charlotte Center City Partners at the 2022 Vision Awards on May 26. The firm was selected based on our work on the Center City Small Business Innovation Fund in which Tom Mitchell is a funding committee member. This award recognizes individuals and organizations that exemplify remarkable vision and make a difference in the City’s ongoing transformation. This initiative was designed to spur and support innovation by Charlotte’s small businesses as they adapt to the new economic realities caused by COVID-19. As a key partner for this program, Tom was able to accept the award on behalf of Moore & Van Allen.
