

INSIGHTS

Kate Wellman and Aishaah Reed Foster's article published by Westlaw: CFPB targets credit card late fees with lower safe harbor and elimination of annual inflation adjustment in new proposed rule

Publications
02.2023

Moore & Van Allen (MVA) Litigation Member Kate Wellman and Associate Aishaah Reed Foster's article titled, "CFPB targets credit card late fees with lower safe harbor and elimination of annual inflation adjustment in new proposed rule" was published by Westlaw on February 24. Kate and Aishaah discuss the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's proposal to lower the late fees credit card issuers can charge consumers and still qualify for a regulatory safe harbor. To view the article, please click here.