

INSIGHTS

Bloomfield and Mitchell Discuss Transitioning Away from LIBOR in Corporate Compliance Insights

Publications

Corporate Compliance Insights

05.2018

Charlotte Litigation Member Neil Bloomfield and Associate Elena Mitchell were published in Corporate Compliance Insights on May 4. The article titled "Transitioning Away from LIBOR: What Is Coming and What Can We Do Now?" discusses how the potential transition away from LIBOR has raised significant concerns in the financial markets, including whether LIBOR will end in 2021, what may replace it, what fallback language should be included in contracts in the interim, and how transition risks can be managed?

Click here to read the article.