The American Bar Association has named Charlotte Estate & Wealth Planning Associate Caitlin Horne to its 2019-2021 class of Trust and Estate Fellows. Caitlin is one of just five attorneys nationally selected as a member of the new Trust and Estate Fellows class.

Selected by the ABA's Real Property, Trust and Estate (RPTE) Section, the Fellows Program encourages the active involvement and participation of young lawyers in RPTE Section activities. The goal of the program is to give young lawyers an opportunity to become involved in the substantive work of the RPTE Section, while developing into future leaders.

Fellows have the opportunity to serve in leadership roles within the ABA, attend key RPTE Section meetings, and participate in substantive projects, such as writing for RPTE Section publications and presenting at Section seminars. They also are paired with veteran RPTE attorneys who serve as mentors. This appointment is in addition to Caitlin's role as a Committee Vice Chair within the Business Planning Group of RPTE.
