

NEWS

DeLaney & McLoughlin Panelists at The CEO Forum Seminar

Media
01.2012

Moore & Van Allen Corporate member Mike DeLaney and Litigation member Jim McLoughlin were invited to serve as panelists at The CEO Forum's "The Changing Legal and Regulatory Context for CEOs and Boards" seminar. The event took place on January 10 at the Queens University of Charlotte's McColl School of Business.

Mike Kennedy, Senior Advisory Partner with Ernst & Young, served as the third panelist alongside DeLaney and McLoughlin. The panel was moderated by Les Hudson, Professor of Strategy at the McColl School of Business.

The CEO Forum is a body within the McColl School of Business that enables the School to remain connected to the real world practice of business and leadership. Members of The CEO Forum are Chief Executives from a broad spectrum of companies in the Charlotte region, including manufacturing, construction, healthcare, finance, food, legal, education, and transportation. Members meet at the McColl School of Business four times a year for discussions on issues ranging from strategy to financial regulation to talent development.