Franklin Presents at Charlotte Chamber's Diversity Roundtable

Speaking Engagements

02.2017

Charlotte Immigration Associate Amanda Franklin presented at the Charlotte Chamber's Diversity Roundtable on February 23. Franklin provided an overview of the legal issues related to the President Trump's executive order on immigration and the courts response, and discussed how companies with international employees who work in the U.S. are navigating this political and economic landscape.

Attendees included diversity and inclusion vice-presidents, directors and managers from Ingersoll Rand, Accenture, Enterprise Holdings, Coca-Cola Consolidated, Fifth Third Bank, Ally Bank, Wells Fargo and Carolinas Healthcare System.
