Charlotte Global Services Member Steve Hader and Immigration Associate Amanda Franklin were published in Law360 on December 21. On April 1, 2018, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services will begin accepting cap-subject H-1B professional worker petitions for a start date of Oct. 1, 2018. Their article titled, "Make A List, Check It Twice: Preparing For H-1B Cap Filing," provides employers and immigration practitioners with a guide on how to begin preparing now considering the potential pitfalls and recent trends with H-1B adjudications.
