Gaskins Quoted in Post and Courier

08.2013

Charleston Employment Member Brandon Gaskins was quoted in The Post and Courier on August 13, 2017. The article discusses Berkeley County's new superintendent's employment agreement and compares it to the contracts signed by his two predecessors.

"I think that's attributable to different counsel," said Gaskins, who wrote and negotiated the contract on Berkeley's behalf. "It's certainly a different format and may be different language, but I don't know if the substantive terms are that much different."
