

NEWS

Intellectual Property Group Releases Client Update

07.2011

Moore & Van Allen's Intellectual Property Group released an update to inform clients of ICANN's approval of the .XXX extension and the generic top-level domain (gTLD) expansion. These developments present a number of issues for trademark owners and entities that conduct a significant amount of business online. The full advisory can be found here.