

NEWS

Jessica Simpson named to Leadership Charleston Class of 2021

Recognitions
August 2020

Charleston Corporate Associate Jessica Simpson has been selected for inclusion to the Charleston Metro Chambers of Commerce's incoming Leadership Charleston Class of 2021. The mission of Leadership Charleston is to identify and motivate emerging leaders and to develop their leadership potential by introducing them to the realities, opportunities and challenges of our civic and business communities. Graduates experience the power of working with other community leaders and organizations for positive growth and advancement of the region.

Upon graduating in August 2021, Leadership Charleston Class of 2021 members will become Leadership Charleston Alumni, a distinguished group of leaders that includes Chamber Board of Directors, elected officials and prominent local leaders.

Please click here to view the entire Leadership Charleston Class of 2021.