

NEWS

MVA Mentioned in the News & Observer for Receiving Top Honors for LGBTQ Policies

11.2017

Moore & Van Allen was mentioned in the News & Observer on November 21 for receiving a top score of 100 percent on the Human Rights Campaign's 2018 Corporate Equality Index. The Corporate Equality Index is a national benchmarking report on LGBTQ policies and practices related to equality. The report evaluated workplace practices including non-discrimination workplace protections, domestic partner benefits, transgender-inclusive health care benefits, competency programs and public engagement with the LGBTQ community. MVA joins the ranks of 609 major U.S. businesses which also earned top marks this year.

Click here to read the article.